Sleeping Single In A Double Bed (1978)

Sleeping single in a double bed thinking over thing I'd wish I'd said
I should have held you but I let you go now I'm the one sleeping all alone
Sleeping single in a double bed tossing turning trying to forget
I could be lying with you instead of sleep single in a double bed

I'd pour me a drink but I'd only be sorry
Cause drinking doubles alone don't make it a party
Now the sleepless nights and it's the same old story
When you're the only one at two in the morning

I'm sleeping single in a double bed thinking over thing I'd wish I'd said
I should have held you but I let you go now I'm the one sleeping all alone
Sleeping single in a double bed tossing turning trying to forget
I could be lying with you instead of sleep single in a double bed

I'm sleeping single in a double bed thinking over thing I'd wish I'd said
I should have held you but I let you go now I'm the one sleeping all alone
Sleeping single in a double bed tossing turning trying to forget
I could be lying with you instead of sleep single in a double bed
