

Barbara Mandrell, Woman to Woman

Hello? You don't know who this is but
The reason I'm callin' you is because I was goin' through my man's pockets this mornin'
And I just happened to find your name and number
So woman to woman, I don't think it's wrong to call
Now, I don't know how you're gonna take this
You might even hang up the phone
But, you see, it really doesn't make any difference
And it's only fair that I let you know
That "That man"; you've been seeing
He's mine and I love him
So woman to woman I think you'll understand
Woman to woman
If you've ever been in love
Then you know how I feel
And woman to woman
Now if you were in my shoes
Wouldn't you have done the same thing too?
Woman to woman
I've just got to make you see
Woman to woman
That you can't take him from me
Woman to woman
Now I just can't step aside
And let you take what is rightfully mine
Woman to woman, right or wrong
I ain't gonna let you break up my happy home
I hope you understand, I love that man
And he's mine
Woman to woman
If you've ever been in love
Then you know how I feel
And woman to woman
Now if you were in my shoes
Wouldn't you have done the same thing too?
Woman to woman
I've just can't step aside
And let you take what's rightfully mine
