

Barbies Cradle, All I Need

Inside of my heart is an army of angels Just coz I let you go Oh volunteers they are here to love and help me only coz ive said no to the killer eyes that invite me to do things i would have to lie about and its better now we are safe you know i love you more from far away
now that all i need is God.
hey little girl do you still have things that haunt you are all the words I said unclear You know I was there just a while ago so miserable until i told the truth and prayed and the killer eyes that invite me to things I would have to lie about (just lost their sparkle) and its better now we are safe you know i love you more from far away now that all I need is God.
inside of my heart is an army of angels waiting for war... the killer eyes that invite me to do things I would have to lie about (lost their sparkle)
and its better now we are safe you know i love you more from far away now that all I need is...
Inside of my heart is an army of angels
Inside of my heart is an army of angels
Inside of my heart is an army of angels
Inside of my heart is an army of angels...
I need you so much I am dust without you I'd lose all the universe just to have you
I need you so much I am dust without you I'd lose all the universe just to have you.. barbie's chuckles (hahaha)
