

Barbra Streisand F/ Vince Gill, If You Ever Leave

Barbra Streisand F/ Vince Gill

Miscellaneous

If You Ever Leave Me

When I fall you're my place to mend

I lose my touch, you're my hands

The one I hold on to

If you run out of reasons to try

I'll love enough for both you and I

I'll be the one you can run to

Bridge

I'd rather go through any pain love puts us through

Than to spend one day without you by my side

Chorus

If you ever leave me

Will u take me with u?

If you're ever lonely

I wanna be lonely too

My home's beside you

No matter where you may go

My love's inside you

Even more than you know.

In a world of anger and lies

I find peace in your eyes

A flame in the darkness

Ooh
