

Barbra Streisand, For Pete's Sake

People are born to love and be happy
Living a sunshine
And a cloudy sky can lead to a rainbow
Lookin' at life that way

(chorus)
If you're lucky to find a special man
You gotta love him all you can
And anything he wants from you
Should be the least that you can do
Don't let him down
Just give him love
Don't let his dreams turn into dust
He's only tryin' to build a wonderland for two
If you're the one to share his world

Just be the someone he can trust
For the sake of love
For the love of love
For pete's sake
Don't let him down
Don't let him down

You can live in a castle
And dream of your diamonds
Thinkin' you really walk tall
But livin' and dreamin' when you're alone
Ain't livin' or dreamin' at all

(repeat chorus to fade)
