Barbra Streisand, I've Dreamed Of You

I've dreamed of you Always feeling you Were there And all my life I have searched for you Everywhere I caught your smile In the morning sun I heard your whisper On the breeze of night I prayed one day That your arms would hold me tight And just when I Thought love had passed me by We met That first look In your eyes I can't forget You melted me With your tender touch I felt all fear and sorrow Slip away Now here we stand Hand in hand This blessed day

I promise you As I give to you My heart That nothing, nothing in this world Shall keep us apart Come happily ever after be The man I'll love Until the very end I've dreamed of you My great love And my best friend For God must know How I love you so He's blessed us here today As man and wife Come dream with me As I've dreamed of you All my life Come dream with me As I've dreamed of you All my life
