

Barbra Streisand, It must be you

It must be you.
Making me feel things I cant explain.
For some reason Im just laughing at the rain.
I cant believe who I am has changed to suddenly.
Im doing things I never thought Id do.
This is not like me.
It must be you.
Its must be love.
Nothing else could turn me upside down.
Or plant my feet so firmly on the ground.
Whats happening?
Everything I say
I wanna sing.
Everything Ive dreamed is coming true.
Whats this feeling in my heart?
It must be you.
Hold me now like this forever
Let this moment go on endlessly.
Im alive when youre beside me.
Thats how I know that we were meant to be.
Ooooh.
Whats happening?
Everything I say I want to sing.
Everything Ive dreamed is coming true.
Whats this feeling in my heart?
It must be you.
It must be you.
