Barbra Streisand, One Less Bell To Answer

One less bell to answer One less egg to fry One less man to pick up after I should be happy, but all I do is cry, cry (No more laughter) Oh, I should be happy (Oh, why did he go?) I only know that since he left, my life's so empty Though I try to forget, it just can't be done Each time the doorbell rings, I still run I don't know how in the world to stop thinking of him (I should be happy) 'Cause I still love him so I end each day the way I started Crying my heart out One less bell to answer One less egg to fry One less man to pick up after No more laughter, no more laughter Since he went away (Since he went away) Since he went away A chair is still a chair Even when there's no one sitting there But a chair is not a house And a house is not a home When there's no one there To hold you tight And no one there You can kiss goodnight A room is still a room Even when there's nothing there but gloom But a room is not a house And a house is not a home When the two of us are far apart And one of us has a broken heart Now and then, I call your name And suddenly your face appears But it's just a crazy game And when it ends, it ends in tears So darling, have a heart Don't let one mistake keep us apart Oh, I'm not meant to live alone Turn this house into a home When I climb the stairs and turn the key Oh please, be there still in love with me (One less bell to answer) Each time the doorbell rings I still run (One less egg to fry) I got one less man to pick up after (No more laughter) No more laughter, no more laughter Since he went away (Since he went away) Since he went away All I do is cry
