Barclay James Harvest, The, After The Day

Barclay James Harvest, The And Other Short Stories/Baby James Harvest After The Day

John's vision of armageddon literally closes the album with a bang! the references in the lyric to a second standing through it all& quot; add to the apocalyptic feel of the song, which was a live

Lyrics:

The eyes of night march slowly by The last grain falls
The kneeling man just sighs
Protected by the one great wall
Of coloured parts
He probes his clouded mind
If he takes a look around him
Is there nothing left to see
Is there nothing left at all
After the day

With trembling hands he wipes his eyes He tries to stand But does not feel the need The morning sun shines on The multicoloured cross Left standing through it all

If he takes a look around him Is there nothing left to see Is there nothing left at all After the day
