

Barclay James Harvest, The, Highway For Fools

Barclay James Harvest, The Turn The Tide
Highway For Fools
You got the groove
I got to move
Cause suddenly something's unreal
I got to go
Get up and go
Cause you ain't the way that i feel

I know what i like
And it ain't looking at you
If i have to believe
I believe in myself and nobody else
Your kind of love ain't for real

I got the wheels
I got the deals
But suddenly you ain't so cool
Great god above it's diamond love
But that kind of rock don't appeal

I know what i like
And it ain't looking at you
If i have to believe
I believe in myself and nobody else
Your kind of love ain't for real

I got to change it's feeling strange
And strange is a highway for fools
If it's diamond love that makes you feel good
Then that kind of love i can steal

I know what i like
And it ain't looking at you
If i have to believe
I believe in myself and nobody else
Your kind of love i can steal
