

Barcode, Rise To Dignity

Talking shit behind my back
Accusation, coward attack
Cheating liar, cheep complains
Barking mad dog out to restrain
Speak up, speak out loud
Spit it out, right here, right now
Grab this opportunity
To take back what you know is untrue
Guilty conscience
Never found a place in the herd
Sweet talk turned to bitter words
Speak up, admit or die
Poor stray dog bark or bite
Misery anger and hate
Built up, withdrawal's too late

Time's right to put up a fight
One of us is going down tonight
Accusation, guilty conscience
Rise to dignity, what's it gonna be
You fucking stare back
Sending those innocent eyes
Cheating cold glance
Total denial on time
Too wrapped, too strapped
In your pack of lies
Can't swallow your pride
Change routine
Return to crime scene
This time reversing the deal
