

Bardot, Before I Let You Go

Bardot

Play It Like That

Before I Let You Go

Thanks to michael2001_@hotmail.com for these lyrics.

Waking up each day to a warm embrace
To the smell of sweet perfume
Every man needs his woman
Seems I ain't good enough for you

(The sweet surrender of a broken heart)
So fragile and lost
Like a child in the dark
(Oh my sweet darling can't you hear my cry)
A kiss in the sky before we say goodbye

[CHORUS]
Before I let you go return the key to my heart
So I can start over
Before I let you go return the key to my heart
So I can start over

If only we could look into our past life
And see how our love first bloomed
I should have cherished each moment
Cause now the love we have is through

(The sweet surrender of a broken heart)
So fragile and lost like a child in the dark
(Oh my sweet darling can't you hear my cry)
A kiss in the sky before we say goodbye

[CHORUS]

Before I let you go.....

I gave so much to you
Gave you my all
I was there through the times
That you needed me
But I'm no longer your girl
You've got the key to my world
Yes you do

[CHORUS x2]

Before I let you go.....
