

Bare Jr., Devil Doll

I met a hippy chick, I snuck her into bed
Didnt think youd ever know, didnt think you were coming home
Last night the devil dressed up as a doll
You woke me with a kick,
Followed up by repeated hits
I think I have a broken rib,
I taste blood upon my lips
Last night the devil dressed up as a doll
Please put that gun away,
I dont even know her name
She aint worth dying for,
Its only you i adore
Last night the devil dressed up as a doll
The hippy chick was quick,
Rolled out of bed lickety-split
Went through the door without being shot
Runnin naked in her Birkenstocks
Last night the devil dressed up as a doll
What if I screamed from my knees
Please dont put those bullets in me
What if we love instead
Do you believe anything Ive said
Last night the devil dressed up as a doll
