

Barefoot, Taken In

Are you listening?
'Cause that'd make a change
You're always talking
Messing round with my brains
Get it (?) but I've no tomorrow
Deep inside I'm full of sorrow
And guess who's not listening
I'm taken in
Taken in
Taken by the way you made me feel like a loser
Taken in
I'm taken in
Taken in
Taken by the way you made me feel like a loser
Taken in
I'm taken in
Have you noticed it?
The criticism's through
I'm tired of talking
You're always on about you
Take it back now, feel it hurting
Take it back 'cause you're deserving
And guess who's not listening
I'm taken in
Taken in
Taken by the way you made me feel like a loser
Taken in
I'm taken in
Taken in
Taken by the way you made me feel like a loser
Taken in
I'm taken in
And sometimes
When I found out you're not the one I got into
And in time
When I found out you won't change
And sometimes
When I found out you're not the one I got into
And in time
When I found out you won't change
And sometimes
When I found out you're not the one I got into
And in time
When I found out you won't change
And sometimes
When I found out you're not the one I got into
And in time
When I found out
You won't change (You won't change)
Taken in
Taken by the way you made me feel like a loser
Taken in
I'm taken in
Taken in
Taken by the way you made me feel like a loser
Taken in
I'm taken in
Taken in
