

Barely Blind, Crowded Room

I spend days
I spend weeks
I spend months
Sitting here
Creating this new fear of you in my mind
Though I never thought that through
Catch me
In the place I felt so safe
We made friends
We made enemies
Of one another
Shooting places these back and forth
Across the room
I'm targeting you and your eager eyes
The way you look
The way you move tonight
And in know that I'll be fine
Avoiding you tonight
With everyone in this crowded room
Somehow I'm next to you
Somehow so close to you
And this crowded room
Is changing everything we've been
We've been gone
We've let other people into our lives
Set aside, for just tonight
As we do our deed
The only deed that no one has to see
And I know that I'll be fine
If I have you just tonight
With everyone in this crowded room
Somehow I'm next to you
Somehow so close to you
And I think about this all the time
If I could have you just tonight
Maybe then I'd set aside
Hopeless dreams and live my life
Breaking free from all these lies
Baby, I'm alive tonight
With everyone in this crowded room
Somehow I'm next to you
Somehow so close to you
