

Barenaked Ladies, Another Spin [Bonus Track]

I had time to kill
One day in Alaska
I walked around until
I found the Arts and Crafts shop
I bought you a card
I don't know where to send it
Wrote it from the heart
I'm not sure how to end it
I wonder where have you been
Will I see you again?
I give the globe another spin
All this time, I'm wondering
Give the globe another spin
Are you in Berlin?
Sweet potato pie
Is what your mom would always make
Your father smoked a pipe
My hand crushed in his handshake
They say you took a job
Spying for the army
And had to relocate
With a new identity
I wonder where have you been
Will I see you again?
I give the globe another spin
All this time, I'm wondering
Give the globe another spin
Are?
Give the globe another spin
All this time, I'm wondering
Give the globe another spin
Are you in?
Are are you in Afghanistan?
Are you in?
Are you in?
Are you in?
