Barenaked Ladies, Unfinished

I left a tip, but it was never a donation I took a trip, but it was never a vacation I took a seat, but I refuse to a number And so defeated, I proceeded unencumbered

[REFRAIN:]
I'd say an ounce of prevention
Is worth a pound of attention span

I took her hand, but it was not in matrimony I told my side, but it was never testimony

[REFRAIN]

Spanning all the ages Turning all the pages The history of me is incomplete

[CHORUS:]
Everything is UnEverything is UnfinEverything is Unfinished

I played along, but it was not for recreation
I left my home, but it was not evacuation
I made a pact that I would finish what I started
I admit the fact I was distracted and outsmarted

[REFRAIN] [CHORUS x3 (3rd time over refrain's music)]

Everything is unfin-
