

Barlow Girl, Listen To Your Heart

Haven't you ever wondered, what it feels like when you think about the guy you love every night?
You think about it and u say just listen 2 your heart.
You do it and then realize that everything is right.

(chorus)

Just listen to your heart it's always right.
Wouldn't you hate to be alone every night?
Just feel your heart poundin', oh so fast,
hoping that this moment will always last.

He gently kisses you on your lips
u fly away and realize that someone really fits, that empty spot in your heart that no one else could fix,
is finally repaired by the only guy that really cares.

(Refrain)

3.

So you sit at home and your floating away
hoping things r gonna stay this way,
hoping things are gonna stay this way,
hoping things are gonna stay this way.
