There's A New World Coming

Hey people, did you know a new world's coming?

Hey people, have you heard; it won't be long

Its coming soon, I've heard them say

And you, my friend, can be there too

When Jesus Christ comes back to stay

The choice is really up to you

Well its all right; this world ain't worth a dime

Hold on tight; it might happen any time

See the light; open your eyes

You know there's a new world coming

And Christ is coming too

And I can't wait 'till He gets back

Watch out; I'm talking about

A new world coming

I want an angel for a next door neighbor

Hey, Gabriel just might drop in for tea

Isaiah lives two blocks away

By Matthew, Mark, and Luke, and John

I saw Jeremiah yesterday

And he brought James and Paul along...
