Barry Manilow, Big City Blues

Mel:

Much of my life has been spiced with romance

Barry:

Too many bedrooms I've slept in by chance

Drownin' out my sorrow

Barry:

Longin' for tomorrow

Both:

Caught up in the big city blues

Rain pourin' down from a cold winter sky

Don't wanna smile and I'm too sad to cry

Barry:

Clouds hangin' above me

No one there to love me

Both:

Guess it's just the big city blues

Barry:

Someday I'll find me the dream that I'm after I'll know her with only a glance

Mel:

She'll make me smile and she'll fill me with Laughter

And our love will be like a dance

Skies will be clear and the sweet sun will shine I'll hold her near and I'll know that she's mine No more stormy weather Love will last forever Good bye to the big city blues

Someday I'll find me the dream that I'm after I'll know her with only a glance

Barry:

She'll make me smile and she'll fill me with

And our love will be like a dance

Both:

Skies will be clear and the sweet sun will shine I'll hold her near and I'll know that she's mine No more stormy weather Love will last forever Good bye to the big city blues Good bye to the big city blues Good bye to the big city

Good bye to the big city blues