

Barry Manilow, I am your child

I am your child.

Wherever you go, you take me, too.

Whatever I know, I learn from you.

Whatever I do, you taught me to do.

I am your child.

And I am your chance.

Whatever will come, will come from me.

Tomorrow is won, by winning me.

Whatever I am, you taught me to be.

I am your hope,

I am your chance,

I am your child.
