

Barry Manilow, You're Looking Hot Tonight

I don't believe my eyes ,what have I seen looking like you walked out of a magazine oh, everyone's stopped and starin' at the door go on you know you got it, let'em beg for more

hey you you're lookin' hot tonight
do you wanna dance
you know you're lookin' hot tonight
give me half a chance
you know you got everybody waiting to see
who will be the lucky guy
hey you you're lookin' hot tonight
won't you give me a try
won't you give me a try

look at you looking like you just begun aren't you just the envy of everyone oh, holding on breaths until you give a sign Go on, you know you got it,let 'em wait in line

Hey you you're lookin' hot tonight
Do you wanna dance
You know you're lookin' hot tonight
Give me half a chance
You know you got everybody waiting to see
who will be the lucky guy
Hey you you're looking hot tonight
Won't you give me a try
Won't you give me a try

You're looking hot tonight
You're looking hot tonight
I can see you smiling at me
I know where you wanna be

Coz,
Hey you I'm lookin' hot tonight
Do you wanna dance
You know I'm lookin' hot tonight
Give me half a chance
You know you got everybody waiting to see
who will be the lucky guy
Hey you you're looking hot tonight
Won't you give me a try
Won't you give me a try
