

Barry McGuire, He Is Coming

(Chorus:)

He is coming
To take us away
He is coming
It could be today

Are you watching
Are you waiting
Are your lamps brightly burning
For His returning

Let your eyes yearn
For the sight of Jesus
You'll know His concern
If you stopped and took a look

At all the people that wouldn't go
Because they don't want Jesus
Why do they refuse
Haven't they heard the Good News

Jesus died and rose again
To break the chains
That locked us in

Doesn't everybody want
A brand new start
Doesn't everybody really want
A change of heart
We all can be born again

(Chorus)
