Barry White, Playing Your Game, Baby

Do it...um humm...yeah...huh...umm...do it x4

You touch me, baby But don't cha know You can't hide No, no, baby When you give it up It's only enough To get me by

You're playin' a game It's so plain You want me to win

I'm willin' to play What ever you say If love is the end

Playin' your game, baby Your game, baby Just you and me Playin' your game, baby Your game, baby Nobody but you and me

Do it to me (repeated over and over)

You start, you stop You know what you got Is what I need Oh, yes it is When you give it up It's only enough To make me say Ooo wee...

That you're playn' a game It's so plain You want me to win

Girl, I'll play What ever you say If love is the end

Playin' your game, baby Your game, baby Just you and me Playin' your game, baby Your game, baby Just you and me Oh, yeah...

Playin' your game, baby Your game, baby Just you and me Playin' your game, baby Your game, baby Nobody but you and me
