Barry White, Staying Power

Im not going nowhere Im stayingbaby Im staying You know why? Ive got staying power Baby, Ive made plans In a fancy restaurant where we can dance Put on my favorite dress You know the one That oozes sexiness Tonight when we make love Im going to work your body with my tongue Ohh baby, my missions clear Theres more than love that keeps you here Ive got staying power Just when you think its over Ill come right back again Ive got staying power Just when you think its over Ill come right back again Ive got staying power Just when you think its over Slow down, dont heat so fast Anticipation makes a good thing last Tease me with your emotions Soon well share natures body lotion Are you ready to free Girl you know you got just what I need Oh baby, my missions clear Its more than love that keeps you here lve got staying power Just when you think its over Ill come right back again Ive got staying power Just when you think its over III come right back again Ive got staying power Just when you think its over No, no baby Im not going anywhere No no no Im not going anywhere III be here III be here For years and years Tonight when we make love Im going to work your body with my tongue Oh baby my missions clear Theres more than love that keeps you here Ive got staying power Just when you think its over III come right back again Ive got staying power Just when you think its over Ill come right back again Ive got staying power Just when you think its over
