

Basement Jaxx, Tonight

You I see sitting waiting for me
By the station near the blue vines
Where we met for the first time
You are free
But yet you choose to be waiting
While I'll be dancing in the moonlight

You I see sitting waiting for me
By the station near the blue vines
Where we met for the first time
You are free
But yet you choose to be waiting
While I'll be playing with the stars tonight
Tonight
