

Bass Astral x Igo, Satellite

There's a simple man
Who was born now in you
They watches what he could
And by the power of love
He never feel the fear
Stress or tears

And only one emotion
scratch the back
When he look into your eyes
And even if the sky is fallin' down

The boy is shering all the pasion with you
Is it you ao mine
And even rainy days are perfect for me now
It's like we withdraw

And only one emotion
Is close to that
When he look into your eyes
And even if the sky is fallin' down
sky is fallin' down tonigh

I will be your satelite
Will built our wonderland
Will go stright to the home
tonigh
I will be your satelite
Will built our wonderland
Will go stright to the home

Yes, i am shy
But i am looking forward
This ...
As i can
And now i know that I can't stop love
I hope you feel the same

I will be your satelite
Will built our wonderland
tonigh
I will be your satelite
Will built our wonderland
Will go stright to the home

It's alright
