

Basshunter, Beer In A Bar

(I'm still smiling like a beer in a bar.)

I'm staring in the mirror while I'm doing my hair,
I'm putting on my clothes while I go down the stairs.
I open up my mini bar and make myself a drink,
I'm not an alcoholic but I know what you think.

My mood is getting higher when there's knocking on my door,
It is my party homeboys and a girl I wanna score,
But I don't have the time to take her for a ride,
We're going to a crazy college party tonight.

(From Mr. Basshunter to MySpace, come on!)

What if people just gave a damn about if I made this music with a computer program?
I can't play the drums or guitar,
But I'm still smiling like a beer in a bar!
I know that this is a weird song,
But who can tell somebody if it's right or wrong?
I just wanna show what I can do,
So sit right back while I'm talking to you!

(To all the online party people out there...)

La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala.

Arriving to the party,
Everyone is there,
This is gonna be so awesome,
I can feel it in the air.
I'm go into the backyard and what do I see?
All the girls are shaking with their ass in front of me.

(Well, this is not my cup of tea, if you know what I mean.)

What if people just gave a damn about if I made this music with a computer program?
I can't play the drums or guitar,
But I'm still smiling like a beer in a bar!
I know that this is a weird song,
But who can tell somebody if it's right or wrong?
I just wanna show what I can do,
So sit right back while I'm talking to you!

(Alright mates, are you ready to party?)

La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala,
La la lalala.
