

Basshunter, In Her Eyes

It's a Saturday night
Nothing will go wrong
But if it does, do I care
I just don't know how to run

It's a Saturday night
And I hope you believe
My heart is calling your name
So hear me out when I say

I can see it in her eyes
When she turns to me and smiles
Everything feels so right
Until the morning light
(repeat)

Are you ready to party?

It's a Saturday night
Nothing will go wrong
But if it does, do I care
I just don't know how to run

It's a Saturday night
And I hope you believe
My heart is calling your name
So hear me out when I say

I can see it in her eyes
When she turns to me and smiles
Everything feels so right
Until the morning light
(repeat)

Are you ready?

I can see it in her eyes
