Basshunter, In Her Eyes

It's a Saturday night Nothing will go wrong But if it does, do I care I just don't know how to run

It's a Saturday night And I hope you believe My heart is calling your name So hear me out when I say

I can see it in her eyes When she turns to me and smiles Everything feels so right Until the morning light (repeat)

Are you ready to party?

It's a Saturday night Nothing will go wrong But if it does, do I care I just don't know how to run

It's a Saturday night And I hope you believe My heart is calling your name So hear me out when I say

I can see it in her eyes When she turns to me and smiles Everything feels so right Until the morning light (repeat)

Are you ready?

I can see it in her eyes
