

Basshunter, Why

Why
didn't we just try,
to hold on
one more time?
You maybe think that I don't care but the tears are falling down, I can hardly breath
in this rain on sorrow.
Remember we walked the beach at night, then we made love in the moon light and you looked into my eyes.

didn't we just try,
to hold on
one more time?

Why
was it all a lie,
lets try it on
one more time?
Life goes on and time goes by but everyday I wonder why, was it ment to be this way is this how you want it.
I might not be the perfect guy, but baby I'm worth one more try don't let me wait another day.

Why
didn't we just try
to hold on
one more time?

Why
was it all a lie,
lets try it on
one more time?
