

Bastille, Revolution

There's a quiet revolution in my head
As we take another 365 around this mess
But a quiet revolution in my head
Don't mean anything unless I let it out

Won't let the days form, no night fall 'til change comes around
Watchin' the world spin away from us now
Hey!

I don't want to go around the sun
With anyone but you babe
With anyone but you babe, no
I don't want to go around the sun
With anyone but you babe
With anyone but you babe

Lost in the universe
We got the modern curse, but we try
We try
I don't want to go around the sun
With anyone but you babe
With anyone but you babe

So bring on quiet revolutions in our heads
Keep on fantasizing futures we do try to make
As we're fallin' through the universe again
Still the jokers and the thieves never fall down

Won't let the days form, no night fall 'til change comes around
Watchin' the world spin away from us now

I don't want to go around the sun
With anyone but you babe
With anyone but you babe
I don't want to go around the sun
With anyone but you babe
With anyone but you babe

Lost in the universe
We got the modern curse, but we try
We try
I don't want to go around the sun
With anyone but you babe
With anyone but you babe

I just can't, I just can't
I just can't imagine
Spinning around the world with anybody
No quiet, no quiet
Quiet revolution
(Spinning around the world with anybody)

I don't want to
(Around the sun)
With anyone but you babe
I don't want to go around the sun

Lost in the universe
We got the modern curse, but we try
We try

With anyone but you babe
With anyone but you
