Bat For Lashes, Prescilla

There's a girl that wants to start
Been thinking about having a couple of kids
Comb a brush around their heads in the morning
To be needed, simply and be needing
Her name is Karen
Been on the road for so long
She wants to live in a place that has a number in a name
Find lovers and anchor before the courage is all gone

She really loves him, Prescilla She really loves him, Prescilla She really loves him, I tell you She really loves him, Prescilla She really loves him, I tell you

To live life outside of the world To break the cross that bears her name She's not your queen anymore, queen of the highway needs something better than learning away

She really loves him, Prescilla She really loves him, Prescilla She really loves him, I tell you She really loves him, Prescilla She really loves him, I tell you

Go away Queen of the Highway Go away Highway Queen of the Highway Go away
