

Batalion d'Amour, Dead Inside

Hundreds of mirrors show my face,
Maybe I'm lost, maybe I'm the found?
I know, it's all a game,
I know, I'm the only one to blame,
I know, it's all a game,
I know, I'm the only one to blame!

Confide in me,
You won't forget the past

But we are all dead inside,
Our feelings are frozen, so don't even try to forget,
Even though you've been trying to escape from the past,
All that pain, it just can't be stronger,
Cause there's nothing left to hurt...

Confide in me
You won't forget the past

But you can win the battle with memories,
You can win the battle with memories,
You can win the battle with memories,
You can win the battle with memories...

The pain can't be stronger,
Cause there's nothing left to hurt... (x2)

Confide in me
You won't forget the past
The pain can't be stronger,
Cause there's nothing left to hurt...
