

Batalion d'Amour, Empty Minds

Tonight I let the wind lull me to sleep,
My Night Of Virtue will close my eyes and then
Sleep's black curtain will fall down,
I'll be so safe inside the arms of misery

My sweetest angel, these empty minds fooling me with dead lies,
Fooling me,
My hopelessness left me paralysed,
And all my dreams were found in blood,
I don't want to wait longer
For something that won't come!

I don't want to wait longer
For something that won't come!
I just don't want to wait longer
For something that won't come! (x2)

I feel your kiss upon my brow
Your quiet breath silken the air
My love for you was too long denied
Now it's so strong, it's something I cannot control

My sweetest angel, these empty minds fooling me with dead lies,
Fooling me,
My hopelessness left me paralysed,
And all my dreams were found in blood,
I don't want to wait longer
For something that won't come!

I don't want to wait longer
For something that won't come!
I just don't want to wait longer
For something that won't come! (x2)
