

Batalion d'Amour, The Last Sunset

Be with me here in this dark place
The Angel of mercy, breathe in me
Please warm my trembling hands
And feed all my passions
Angel of Mercy, the sunshine was yours
But the last sunset belongs to me
Enjoy that pleasure, enjoy that pain
I'm your fate, so don't be afraid
And confide in me!
Touch me once again, move in me
Even our hope lies dying
Even the sunset won't return
Even we suffer in eternal love
And I'm falling down
So, please touch me once again, move in me, please save me
And I'm falling down
I know, the sunlight won't return
And we'll suffer in eternal love
And we won't die
We won't die
We won't die...
