

Batalion d'Amour, The Shadow side of God

The Shadow side of God
Path that leads me to my dreams
Isn't what it seems
To my eyes
Through the no mans land
I lead you
But is it real I won't ask
Still I'm trying to define
The shadow side of God
Please take me to this place
Time is passing slowly now
With bated breath I die
Still waiting for that night
Path that leads me to my dreams
Isn't what it seems
And I can't find my way
Through the no mans land
I lead you
But is it real
And I can't find myself
Were falling down
Still trying hard to find a way back home
Not to fall
Path that leads me to my dreams
Isn't what it seems
And I can't find my way
Through the no mans land
I lead you
But is it real
And I can't find myself
Were falling down
Still trying hard to find a way back home
Not to fall x3
I'll never be the same
Never be the same
Dancing in the moon
Dancing in the rain
With you
Were trying to deny
All love inside of us
Still striving to prevent
The standstill of our lives
Were trying to define
The shadow side of God
We came away with grief
Of places we have found
Were trying to believe
In all our memories
Still trying to deceive
Each other in our dreams
I'm trying to define
All love inside of us
The love of us
In our hearts
In our minds
