

Battle, Day Of Fighting

One more day of fighting
Looking out the window I see
The strike of lightening
The storm is here

The looks that burn are around me
I want to escape, so that nobody can see
All my fears

Give me a drug
To help set me free
Give me your blessing
To rid all the demons of me

Hurt and suffering blocking my way
On the top of the tower I see
Men destroying the world
We must pay

Here, above I see my sins
Why cant I stop?
Please run away with me
Far away from here

Give me some hope
To help set me free
Give me your love
To rid all the demons of me

One more day of fighting
So many sightings
Confusing inside of me

The weight of a boulder
I carry on my shoulders
The war against my beliefs

I looked through the door
The right way, i saw
But even though the wrong path i chose

Like a drug in my veins
I feel sane, i act insane
Just by seeing what ive done

The way back is long

Give me some hope
To help me
