

Bay City Rollers, Marlina

oh you dream of a silver stallion riding high on the stars above and then a ray of love comes and carries you away then you dream of a thousand faces watching you on a silver screen and then the morning comes chasing all your dreams away and I say oh Marlina, who you gonna be today oh Marlina, don't you know you're gonna' dream your life away oh you dream of a deep blue ocean on the shores of the seven seas and then you sail the wind gliding on a silver wave and you dream of a golden city in the land of a prince so fair and then the eyes of love turn into another day

oh Marlina, don't you know you're gonna' dream your life away

oh Marlina, who you gonna be today
oh Marlina, don't you know you're gonna' dream your life away
oh Marlina, don't you know you're gonna' dream your life away
