

Bazzi, Beautiful World

Baby, I've been thinking
We've been missing out
On knowing us
Searching the world, I been searching the world
I've had my reasons
To believe in
Something bigger than us
Yeah

Hey
I could show you the world
This beautiful world
You can know
Hey
I could show you the world
This beautiful world
So unknown

Got a spot out in London, I'll show it to you
Trips out to Paris, let's stop by the Louvre
Post up in cafes, smoke cigarettes with you
And we'll look at the locals and guess what they do
Girl, I been here before, but with you it feel new You're looking at art, and I'm looking at you
What a beautiful sight (Yeah, yeah)
Seeing the world through your eyes, yeah yeah

Hey
I could show you the world
This beautiful world
You can know
Hey
I could show you the world
This beautiful world
So unknown
