

Bazzi, Eyes

I saw my life with you
That's one hell of a view
A beautiful moment
Afraid of the morning

You put your heart on mine
Watch us both intertwine (yea)
This life that we facing
It feels so amazing (ay)

Tonight, I swear in those eyes
I feel it all over
Inside, we're losing composure
I'm holding on for my life
Drowning in those eyes

I'm shaking, pulling me closer
Replayed it, 20 times over
I'm holding on for my life
Drowning in those eyes

I waste away with you
We could start brand new
Remember the feeling
Still swear I could feel it again (oh)
Mmm, I don't wanna waste no time

I just wanna make you mine
(hey)
you know that you're beautiful
I told you it a thousand times
(hey)
In my dreams I wonder why
We can never change back time
But I know it'll be alright
When I got you by my side

Tonight, I swear in those eyes
I feel it all over
Inside, we're losing composure
I'm holding on for my life
Drowning in those eyes

I'm shaking, pulling me closer
Replayed it, 20 times over
I'm holding on for my life
Drowning in those eyes
