

BBMak, After All Is Said And Done

I thought that you were working late
But that was when I made my first mistake
As you walked into the hall and saw all the clothes upon the floor
It was too late
She said she didn't understand
And as she cried she took the ring from off her hand
Then I knew it was over as she turned to me and said
Our love is dead

After all is said and done
I know I'm not the only one
To have had it all and thrown it all away
We're all alone under the sun
Maybe come tomorrow
I'll be moving on?

I know what I did was wrong
But you don't know what you've got until it's gone
If there were something I could say to you to make you change your mind
You know I'd try

After all is said and done
I know I'm not only one
To have had it all and thrown it all away
We're all alone under the sun
Maybe come tomorrow
I'm not to live without you
Maybe come tomorrow
Cause all I got is here with now
But I don't wanna live without

After all is said and done
I know I'm not the only one
To have had it all and thrown it all away
We're all alone under the sun
Maybe come tomorrow
Maybe come tomorrow
Maybe come tomorrow
I'll be moving on?
