

BBMak, Miss You More

There's so many reasons that I find
To run to you
Cause there's so little lovin'
In my life now I'm away

And thinkin' about it
I want things back
How they used to be Cause there's no way around it
Nothing good comes easily

So much between us

And we both know that it's wrong
So I keep on waiting
'til I'm back where I belong

CHORUS

So here I am
All by myself
Thinkin' of you
Nobody else
There's a feeling inside
And as hard as I try
It just won't go away
Are you findin' it hard
All on your own?
Having to face each night alone
Knowing you are the one
With the love that I need
And I miss you more each day

So many feelings
emotions running away with me
Cause it's you I believe in
And our love that runs so deep

So much between us
And we both know that it's wrong
Now I keep on waiting
'til I'm back where I belong
(Back where I belong)

(CHORUS)

So I keep on waiting
'til I'm back where I belong
Back where I belong

(CHORUS to fade)
