

BBMak, September

(Why did you, why did you, did you go?)
(I'll never know)

Oh Girl,
I wonder if I'm out of your mind
Are you over me? It hurts...
And I can't describe the feeling inside

I remember the times
When we were never once a moment apart
You were the only one who captured my heart
Where did it go wrong, girl?

Why did you leave in September,
thinking the summer had gone?
Now it's a lonely November,
now that my summer is gone.

I'm...
trying not to think of your smile
But it's always then I find...
That I'm ok just for a while

I remember the times
When we were never once a moment apart
You were the only one who captured my heart
Where did it go wrong, girl?
(Why?...)

Why did you leave in September,
thinking the summer had gone?
(Why did you leave me alone?)
Now it's a lonely November,
now that my summer is gone.

Now you'll never know how I feel
I'm here for you
If only you could read my mind
You'd always be mine
Mine
You'll never know
(Why did you, why did you, did you go?)
(I'll never know)

You'll always be
Someone... that I'll remember
Now... I know it's time to move on
Now, I know

I remember the times
When we were never once a moment apart
You were the only one who captured my heart
Where did it go wrong, girl?
Oh...

Why did you leave in September,
thinking the summer had gone?
(Why did you leave me alone?)
Cause, now it's cold in December,
now that my summer is gone.
(I don't know...)

Now you'll never know how I feel
I'm here for you

If only you could read my mind
You'd always be mine
Mine
You'll never know

Why did you leave in September?
(Why did you, why did you, did you go?)
(You'll never know)
(I'll never know)
Why did you leave in September?
(Why did you, why did you, did you go?)
(You'll never know)
(I'll never know)
Why did you leave in September?
(Why did you, why did you, did you go?)
(You'll never know)
(I'll never know)

You'll never know
