

Be-Bop Deluxe, Jet Silver And The Dolls Of Venus

Out across the heavens
When you're sleeping in your bed
Someone turns a light on
Can you feel it burn inside your head?
Floating out your window
On the streams of purest sound
Can you see the town
In midnight eiderdown?
Wrapped in your dressing gown
And robed in space
Jet Silver and the Dolls of Venus
Span the space between us with a tune
Jet Silver and the Dolls of Venus
Play their music, specially for you
Change your faces slowly
'Til the morning warms the sky
All you see is holy
But to be reborn all has to die
Children of past summers
We are moving to the end
Can you wave your hand?
And have you heard the plan?
It's time to tune the band
Play on, play on
Jet Silver and the Dolls of Venus
Span the space between us with a tune
Jet Silver and the Dolls of Venus
Play their music, specially for you
