

Be Free, Smile

REF:

Smile is your colour, reason to break my sound
Love tomorrow, reason to break my soul
You remember when I was a child
Every day in colour gave me a sound
Like a pretty garden full of right
I remember and I still, still cry

REF:

Smile is your colour, reason to break my sound
Love tomorrow, reason to break my soul
You remember when I was a child
Everyday I try to find that sound
Maybe if you only could be mine
I remember and I still, still smile

Smile is your colour, reason to break my sound
Love tomorrow, reason to break my soul
