

Bea Miller, NEVER GONNA LIKE YOU (ft. Snake

i only met your father once and he told me

“not to worry about you showing off and we did so we did so much shit growing up now I don't know
a thing about you

no you don't recognize me when I look you in the face how could you when you hide behind your shade all black you're getting so deep but I know you're in a state tell me how you change so fast?
