

Beach House, Home Again

Home again
Driven back
she's still waiting for a friend little purple burgundy (?)
Remember what you've always meant to be Something in the way a heart just fell apart in pain Swimming in the cold water
everybody's saved (?)
Heaven baby
Is within the hour
With your heart in handfuls Forbidden flowers
Bread and Bonnet
Along the way

Better take your chances While your still aaway
Something in the way a heart just feell apart in pain Swimming in the cold water
everybody's saved
Constant heart of my Devotion
Must be you
And all _____ Home again
the years been with them (?)
Now lets swim
out of your ocean
