

Beanie Sigel, Judgment Day

[Verse 1:]

Hail Mary full of grace I got the devil in my head again, my eyes blood shot red again. I thought I Escaped this trap, but I'm back smokin on a surface purple plat. Satan whispers, got me back on My dark liquor, that fire water killin my liver, the snake hisses in my ear It's a natural born fear, kill
Em all full of tears? Is my mind playin tricks on me is that man in that trench coat after me, I wake
Up with my sheet soaked half a sleep, hearin 2pac's voice screamin blasphemy sayin come with Me see run quick see Then I hear the voice of B.I.G., dyin ain't the shit but It's pleasant kinda quite
But I don't buy it.

[Chorus: Ozzy Osbourne]

Day of Judgement God Is calling
Underneath the war pigs crawling
Begging mercy for the sins
Satan laughing spreads his wings...
Oh Lord Yeah

[Verse 2:]

Tarpped & ya done, ya strayin from the path of sooner, off the natural consumer, 5 praye
Declared but I barely get to it, fornicating with these calfers, my life is a ruins, It's hard to fight back
When I'm in tune with my music banned from the stands cause the occupation I'm choosin, I'm a Muslim by nature gangster by circumstance Sonny says the workin man don't stand a chance
And I'm a man & I ain't perfect but that's a poor excuse It ain't workin, a man once compl Ain't have no shoes so he once met a man who ain't have no feet. They say prayer better to Sleep the earth shall belong to the meek I try to be a mindful a speech, knowing everythings
Written and the clock is still ticking therefore I just pray that I'm prepared for... the day

[Chorus]

[Verse 3:]

Our Father please show me the light my life ain't right, the devil got my head in a vice I can't Escape em he keep chasin, in the name of the most patient I rebuke the satan, causin trials and Revelations tryin to test my faith bringing? to my life with your whirling temptation let's say a payer
For the souls that lost in the matrix, who ever eat of the fruit should forever dwell in the?, As I
Walk through the valley I shall show no fear or forever dwell in the house as the hour towards Near & as you call a long song I shall shed no tear but rejoice in your words cause the tru
Clear. They buildin up then they tearin down, revelations in effect here & now, I was terrifi
Death but I don't fear It now, I was blind, dumb, & deaf but I hear it now do you hear me
Good.

[Chorus]
