

Bear Vs. Shark, 5, 6 Kids

1 2 3 4 5 6 killers! with lighting in their guns 1 2 3 4 5 6 killers! and hips are for running when the cities have the same names, that ring out in your head your pictures are the poison dart, and this is not a plea a thousand mile pitchfork, another one got caught upwards to the heavens where another one gets shot

it's what we got here and what we didn't know here now a burning question that can filter through our eyes we're high school sweethearts, tied by light and sound disconnected party song, dragons on the boulevard, hey!

every light on the street has a story, every street and the story the same!
you were born, they put roses in windows you were born holding windows as eyes! it's about burning questions, holding books holding questions as spines and its been a mighty long time since the business left town a burning question that can filter through our eyes, were high school sweethearts tied by light and sound, disconnected party song dragons on the boulevard, hey!

dog eats the man, man eats the dog these are the facts, live in your chicken shit house cause I was there and I looked for you but these are the ways I react clawing out of a corner

it's what we got here and what we didn't know here now
disconnected party song, dragons on the boulevard, hey!

I never had any courage outrageous faith without asking
